

CHARTER TRAIN SCHEDULED FOR SO. DAKOTA TILT

Students, Faculty and Alumni Will Be On Special Train

MORE MAY GO

The "Football Special" to the South Dakota-Omaha University football game at Vermillion will leave the Union Station at 7:30 tomorrow morning. The required amount of tickets have been sold, stated Kenneth Hargrove, organizer and ticket chairman, Thursday.

"It seems to me that a very fine college spirit is developing at the University," said President Rowland Haynes. "College spirit depends on showing an interest in worth-while things. The success of our football team is a worth-while enterprise and going to Vermillion is a good way of showing our interest therein."

Those still desiring tickets should see Hargrove, but all tickets sold above the first 150 will cost $2.84 instead of $2.50.

The train ride to Vermillion takes about four and one-half hours and the student rooters will arrive about noon. The game starts at 2 in the afternoon and the group will board the train for home at 6, reaching Omaha around 10:30 P. M.

Concessions on the train will be handled by students, and stunts and acts are planned for the trip, stated Hargrove.

Dr. Murray Asks Support For New Campus Location

"We have outgrown our home," said Dr. Floyd J. Murray, a member of the Board of Regents, at the Homecoming banquet Friday night, October 25. "The Board has looked at and considered 22 different sites for the new location of the University."

"Whatever place is chosen, there will be criticism. The Board wants the support of alumni and students in any selection that is made, for they are working for the best interests of the University."

Nearly 400 people attended the Homecoming banquet and remained for the dance that followed.

Macy Baum was toastmaster. He presented the other speakers on the program; President Rowland Haynes, Reed Zimmerman, for the alumni, and Ellen Hartman, for the students.

Kenneth Turner, chairman of Homecoming, presented two banners; one for the best float in the parade that morning, and the other for the largest group present at the banquet. Alpha Gamma Chi sorority had the best float, and the Barbs had the most people present at the dinner.

The Homecoming Princess, Elinor Johnson, was presented to the assembled group dressed in the traditional Indian Princess regalia.

Bernice Dohrse entertained twenty-five actives and pledges of Phi Delta Psi sorority at her home last Monday evening.

GRIDDERS GAIN Nation-Wide A. P. RECOGNITION

The high-flying Cardinal footballers of Omaha University were accorded the highest recognition ever gained by an Omaha team this week by being included in the national list of undefeated and untied teams in the country. The list was compiled by the Associated Press.

Only 36 teams were included in the list. Iowa University is the only other mid-western team on the honor roll.

Board Members Favor Yearbook

The Board of Student Publications is in favor of publishing an annual for the University this year if the support and co-operation of the senior class and the Student Council is assured, it was announced Monday by John Moucka, student representative, following a meeting of the Board.

A special meeting of the Student Council was called Tuesday noon to discuss the publication of the yearbook. According to Kenneth Turner, president, the Council will push the plan and is eager to co-operate with the Board.

Moucka, who is also president of the senior class, discussed the proposed annual with the seniors at a meeting Wednesday. No definite stand was taken by the group on the matter, as less than half of the senior class was present at the meeting.

When the matter was presented to a meeting of the Barbs for discussion Wednesday, they seemed to be very much in favor of an annual being published this year, according to Ed-Nell Benson, Barb vice-president.

The proposed annual would contain pictures of the seniors, the athletic teams, faculty members and all of the organizations on the University campus. Further plans will be made by the Board when they meet next week.

Theta Frat Dance In Hall Tonight

Theta Phi Delta fraternity will hold the first fraternity pledge dance tonight in Jacobs' Hall. Two hundred bids, designed and printed by Franklin Spangler, have been issued. Autumn decorations in addition to the Theta colors of purple, white and gold will be used to decorate the hall.

Charles Jerome, pledge president, is in charge of the arrangements for the dance. He is assisted by Bob Anderson, Don Belau and Phil Rodgers. Dean Lloyd M. Bradfield and Dr. William H. Thompson, Theta alumni, will be the guests of honor. The Colonial Club orchestra will furnish the music. Dancing will begin at 9:00 o'clock.

PLAN CARD PARTY

The Women's Athletic Association is making plans for a card party to be held in Jacobs' Hall about November 19. Plans are also being made for a W. A. A. hike Sunday, November 10.

REGENTS, FACULTY HONOR PRESIDENT HAYNES TONIGHT

Introduce Uni. Head Informally To City
Circles

STUDENTS ASSIST

The regents and faculty of the University of Omaha are holding an informal reception, introducing President Rowland Haynes to the educational circles of the city, tonight in the Fontenelle ballroom from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Faculties of the local universities, teachers in the Omaha and Council Bluffs public schools, students and friends of the University, have been invited to attend the reception.

Regent Heads Committee

A committee composed of three University of Omaha regents and seven faculty members have made the arrangements for the reception. Mr. Frank T. B. Martin, regent, is chairman of the committee. Other members are: Mrs. James E. Bednar, Mr. Harry A. Jacobberger, Dr. Edgar A. Holt, Dr. Berthe Koch, Mr. Martin Bush, Dean Lloyd M. Bradfield, Dean Rene H. Stevens, Miss Ruth Diamond and Miss Gertrude Kincaide.

Women Students Serve

Seventeen women students of the University have been selected to serve at the reception. They are: Gladys Lehr, Carol Wigton, Elinor Johnson, Amy Rohacek, Dorothy Anderson, Fay Lane, Elaine Coulter, Mildred Garries, Theda Anthes, Ardith Hudson, Ed-Nell Benson, Mary Anna Harrington, Rose Fischer, Rose Kirshenbaum, Bertha Slutsky, Virginia Lee Long, and Ellen Hartman.

A musical program has been arranged for the evening by Mr. Bush and the University orchestra, under the direction of Mr. Henry Cox, will play.

C. Douglas Booth Cites Barriers Of World Peace

Economic nationalism is the most irritating influence working to prevent international co-operation and peace in the world today, according to Major C. Douglas Booth, who addressed the student body on "Economic Nationalism" Monday morning, October 28.

Mr. Booth indicated that economic nationalism might be interpreted in terms of either an idea or a policy. As an idea economic nationalism is the notion of fostering the economic welfare of a state by making it more powerful. In terms of a policy, economic nationalism is merely a method adopted to secure power and economic self-sufficiency.

"Quite often the economic nationalist attempts to reconcile in theory the economic welfare of the citizenry with the power of the state. However, in practice, economic nationalism does not better the economic condition of the masses, or at least only rarely," stated the Major.

Major Booth concluded his address with the warning that the nations must watch their step or the high tariff barrier ideal will lead them into another great and terrible catastrophe.

Friday, November 1
10:00—Dr. Nielsen at Chem Club, Science Hall.

10:00—Convocation in Jacobs' Hall.
8:30—President's Reception at Fontenelle.

9:00—Theta Pledge Dance, Jacobs' Hall.

Saturday, November 2
7:30—Train leaves for Vermillion, South Dakota.

2:00—Omaha U. plays University of South Dakota.

Tuesday, November 5
8:00—Sigma Tau Delta Meeting at Paxton.

Wednesday, November 6
10:00—Charlotte Niven addresses convocation.

Schedule Two Debate Meets

Plans have thus far been advanced for two tournaments in which the varsity debate team will participate.

The first of these tournaments will take place at Dana College, Blair, Nebraska, on Friday and Saturday, November 22 and 23. The tournament, a single elimination affair, is a new event and is under the sponsorship of the Alpha Sigma Phi, National Forensic Fraternity. Schools from Iowa, Nebraska, and Kansas will take part. The winner will be the recipient of a trophy.

The other tournament is a preliminary one, to be held at Kearney, Nebraska, on December 13 and 14. This is to be a practice contest with no decisions awarded. It is sponsored by the Nebraska Intercollegiate Forensic Association.

Mr. Heckman will not select the participants in these tournaments until the time of these contests. He would prefer to send one girls' team and one boys' team to Blair, and a girls' team to Kearney.

Negotiations for practice debates are being made with Kearney, the University of Kansas City, Doane, Dana, and the University of South Dakota.

There is a possibility that debating will not be restricted to the varsity team in intercollegiate competition, but may be extended to intramural debates on the University of Omaha campus.

Post Directory Proofs Monday

Page proofs of the 1935-1936 Student Directory will be posted on the Joslyn Hall bulletin board Monday morning, it was announced Thursday by George Knipprath, editor of the Directory.

"The students should check these proofs before Thursday for the correct spelling of their names and their addresses and telephone numbers," stated Knipprath.

The Directory may be purchased on the campus Monday, November 18, from George Threadgill, Fran Nelson or George Knipprath.

DR. VARTANIAN SPEAKS

Dr. V. H. Vartanian of the Department of Philosophy has been invited to deliver the final address of the southwestern Iowa convention of the Christian Endeavor organization.

The convention will be held November 10 and 11 at Shenandoah, Iowa.

OMAHA CARDINALS TACKLE COYOTES AT VERMILLION

Untied, Undefeated
Omaha Team Meets
Tough Foe

SECOND NCC GAME

OMAHA University's undefeated and untied gridmen tackle the toughest foe of their schedule so far this year when they tangle with the University of South Dakota Coyotes next Saturday afternoon.

The game has aroused the Cardinals' supporters to a new peak of enthusiasm, and 150 loyal rooters will leave with the gridgers on a "Football Special" from Union Station at 7:30 tomorrow morning.

South Dakota had a mediocre record until last week, when they pulled the biggest upset of the North-Central loop this year by trimming South Dakota State, 7 to 2. The Staters are the team that sprang the opening surprise of the year by beating Wisconsin's Badgers, 13 to 6.

The Coyotes' unexpected show of strength against State has been a big cause of worry for Coach Sed Hartman's gang, and the locals have been working seriously all week in preparation for their Dakota invasion.

Omaha has already clinched the Nebraska Intercollegiate championship with a clean record of three victories and only one N. I. A. A. loop game remaining. The North Central conference offers much stiffer competition than the Nebraska league, and the Coyote tilt will be a real test for the Cards.

The Redbirds have been handicapped by injuries since the Peru game, and Jerry Gardner, a regular 212-pound tackle, will be lost to them as a result of a twisted knee suffered against the Bobcats.

Royce Brown, blocking halfback, has been taking it easy during the workouts favoring a stiff shoulder, but is expected to play tomorrow. Bob Frink will replace Gardner at tackle, and Ken Turner, who started and played a fine game against Peru, will probably relieve Brown.

Probable starting lineups:

Omaha	So. Dakota
Boldenow	L. E. Diehl
H. Sorenson	L. T. Lassen
Crawford	L. G. Dragash
Johnk	C. Leach
King	R. G. Surdet
Frink	R. T. Evans
N. Sorenson	R. E. Halverson
Loder	Q. B. Thompson
Tyler	L. H. Miller
Brown	R. H. Barber
Pearey	F. B. Rouseff

FRAT MEETING

Sigma Tau Delta, national honorary English fraternity, will meet Tuesday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the Paxton hotel. A program of original compositions and criticisms has been arranged by Gladys Reynolds, program chairman of the fraternity.

THE VERMILLION TRIP

Omaha university has entered the larger-university stage when the students charter a special train to see a game one hundred and fifty miles from home. The success of this venture will do much to increase the school prestige in the eyes of the tax-payers of Omaha and the students themselves.

Only one note of warning. It is much easier to receive a "black eye" than it is to receive a compliment. We must be careful that our conduct will not reflect on the University, as we will be guests of the University of South Dakota in our first game with them.

On to Vermillion and good luck, you Cardinals.

TO THE REGENTS

There will be no criticism from the student body when the Board of Regents finally selects a location for our new University plant.
Since 1931 when the University was made a municipal institution, the students have looked forward to a new campus site, and now the students are most eager for the regents to make their choice so that actual construction may begin.

We have indeed "outgrown our home," as a member of the Board so aptly expressed our growth at the Homecoming banquet last week. The classrooms in Joslyn Hall and Science Hall are inadequate and poorly equipped. The library, because of its wooden structure, is unfit to house the valuable collection of books belonging to the University, and because of its size the library does not provide for the students a suitable place in which to study. Neither the athletic field nor Jacobs' Hall can be used for varsity games and there is no auditorium.

A new location means more to the student body than mere new surroundings. It means recognition by the North Central Association; large modern buildings, adequately equipped for university work; increased enrollment and more activities; localization of the university buildings on one campus, wholly separated from the confusion of the city; membership in the national Greek organizations and a campus around which to build sorority and fraternity houses in the future; and an institution to which the students may look with pride and respect.

Thru The Keyhole

What this school needs is more dances like the Homecoming one....It seems that the football team really had a choice time....From the dance we gathered this—Johnk is the new heart throb on the campus....Some claim he is an up and coming dancer, and with a little persuasion could be a very fine date....Tyler was cutting right and left,
and looked like he was rounding end a time or two....maybe trying to catch Brown, who was there in all his glory with his steady....or didn't you know?....Donlon is still beating out the rest of the boys out here, as he was there again with Nelson....It looks like love is beginning to bloom in the office of Doctor Thompson....Miller seems to be getting that way about Virginia Brown....
Leigh forsaked the river the other nite to take "Tony" home....but we must remember that the Gamma is over and the Pi O is yet to come....Is Keaton giving Bunny the rush now, or was it just the fact that Lil had a date?....Betty Lou is really getting the royal rush also....First the boy
in Blue....Now Rogers is interested in her....
Minnie Meyers told us that this will be the first year that she hasn't gone to the Theta with a Theta....but then, again Rogers says that he may remedy the situation....Everyone seemed to be having a good time with Vogel's date at the dance
....Bring her around more often, John....Sklenka
and Bill Nelson seemed to be having a fair time,
but they should have had....not to mention Hesler
and Knipprath....Have a good sleep, boys?

By the way, we heard that Hargrove believes in love at first sight, 'cause he says it's a labor saving device....Leo Pearey says that he is a gentleman because he never strikes a woman without provocation....Real news, a certain fellow out here is now on the free list. He says that we can publish his name next week....so be on the lookout.

The inebriated fellow who was removed from the game Friday is a close relative of a certain Sig Chi....Heh, Heh, Kozak and O'Brien are now tied for the title of "All American Heels"....
Reimann and Middlekauff mixed it up outside the gym after Homecoming dance....Wonder why it is called Homecoming?....So few people go home
....Phi Sigs are holding their dance at the Cabette
....Make your own remarks....Clough, it seems,
doesn't believe in paying her gambling debts....
Stringer wouldn't give a child a dime for being good, but she'd give him a whacking for disobedience....Scotchman.

We often wonder why the Theta pledges have had such long, sober faces since last Mon....
Lehr has really got the gimme's since they put that nickle machine in the "Hash"....What does she think some of us are, walking mints?....We hear that the BARBS, yes the BARBS, are going to have a dancing class to try to make some of their members more popular....Well, no more news, so see you up at VERMILLION.

Exploring the Ice Age in Antarctica—National Geographic Magazine.

In the October issue of the National Geographic Magazine Rear-Admiral Richard Evelyn Byrd in a profusely illustrated article gives a vivid picture of life on the ice-covered southern continent. He begins by telling of the struggles and hardships he and his associates encountered during the two years it took them to outfit the expedition. "I got so heavily in debt I had to keep going." Reaching Little America in January, 1934, the explorers found everything exactly as they had left it four years previous. Relighting the coal in the stove they warmed the meat and the frozen coffee. Both the electric lights and the telephone still worked.
"It was uncanny. Even batteries held up in an ice age." Air mail, moving pictures, radio, library, and friendly penguins all helped in making the men
feel at home.

The adventurer will find the lone four-month-long vigil of Byrd as fascinating as he will find this entire article. Many major discoveries were made and twenty branches of science were served by this expedition. The study of the mass of data when finished in 1938 will fill ten volumes.

cently embroiled men and women on the University

The Daily Pennsylvanian started it by asking the men whether they preferred pretty girls or smart questions of importance in higher education.

The girls countered with a questionnaire for women students, which began:

Library Expands

Slowly but steadily the library has been growing these past few years. Since the fall semester began, more than a thousand books have been purchased and catalogued in the library. The German section has been benefited more than any other section. German novels and poems come direct from Germany, bound in uniquely designed covers.

Nor have the magazines suffered from neglect. The library subscribes to 153 periodicals, and 27
more were ordered for this fall.
Most of them have now arrived.
Miss Chesnut, the librarian, says that the University expects to undertake soon the binding of magazines now accumulated from years back, and that twenty departmental subjects are represented by the magazines we now have
and it is very important they be preserved.

Among the new magazines now in our library are: Current History, London Times Literary Supplement, Modern Language Notes, National Geographic, Opportunity
—A Journal of Negro Life, Political Science Quarterly, Social Studies, and Writer's Digest.

Peru Eleven Fails To Hold Omaha After
First Half

FINAL SCORE 31-0

Omaha won its fifth straight victory this season, defeating Peru at N. S. S. A. park Friday afternoon by a score of 31-0. It was an exciting game for the first half, as the Peru Bobcats took everything the Cardinals had and held them at the half on their one-yard line for four downs. The Cards made one touchdown the first half, early in the first quarter.

After the half Omaha came out on the field prepared for the massacre. Pearey passed forty yards to Brown, who was stopped on the five-yard line. The Bobcats couldn't stop Pearey as he received a lateral from Tyler and went over standing up. Loder made the point and Omaha held a 13-point lead.

Reserves were poured on the field by Coach Hartman after six successive passes by the regulars had put the ball on Peru's five, but the reserves lost on downs. Later Bill Nelson made 20 yards through tackle to the Bobcats' 25. Anderson gained nine around left end. Turner made six more and Nelson took the ball through center for the touchdown. After a bad punt Nelson tossed to Nieman for the next score. Anderson made the final six when he slipped through left end and found himself in the clear. This 78-yard run by Anderson was the longest during the day.

The reserves stole the day, as they made more touchdowns the last quarter than the varsity piled up during the preceding three quarters. The entire forward wall

Try For Point Costs Football

Ken Turner's try for point after touchdown in the fourth quarter of the Peru game missed the goal posts, but sailed over the fence. The ball was picked up by some alert youngster, who made a dazzling four-block run through an open field to his home.

Turner denies that it was his young brother who was waiting outside the fence as part of a pre-arranged plot.

Cardinals Head Nebraska, N. C. C. Grid Conferences

Omaha is still tops of both conferences. The loyal will really experience a glow of enthusiasm when he reads week after week that his alma mater is remaining at the top of a conference, but to be at the top of two conferences, that is something.

Omaha has the N. I. A. A. conference title clinched with three victories and only one more game to play. In the North Central conference trouble lies ahead with an upset last week and several ties. If Omaha can beat two out of three teams in the North Central conference, then Omaha will be in the enviable position of holding two conference titles at the same time.

Pre-Meds Elect Club Officers

Frank Goos was elected president of the Pre-Med club of the University at a meeting held Tuesday, October 29. Other officers elected at the meeting are Vance Senter, vice-president; Careth Wagner, secretary, and Herbert Hildebrand, reporter.

The following committee chairmen were appointed by the new president: Paul Stageman, banquet; Bob Stowe, letters; and Frank Goos, speakers. Miss Nell Ward, instructor of chemistry, is the club sponsor.

Omaha Chamber Honor President

President Rowland Haynes will be honored today at the Omaha Chamber of Commerce public affairs luncheon. Twenty-six Nebraska educators and five western Iowa college officials have been invited by President Alvin E. Johnson to attend the chamber's luncheon.

Francis P. Matthews, chairman of the Chamber's municipal affairs committee, will preside at the luncheon, which will mark the official welcome to Mr. Haynes by Omaha business and professional interests.

RADIO PRODUCTIONS

The Nebraska Amateurs, a club composed of advanced play production students of the University, will present a play every Saturday over radio station WAAW at 2:30 p. m. Jane Vincent, '38, will arrange and direct all of the productions. Students who will take part in the programs are: Donald Reisser, Perry Rushlau, Sue Kemper, Amy Rohacek, Gordon Quiller and Sylvan Frankel.

INITIATE THIRTY-FIVE

Thirty-five girls were initiated into the Women's Athletic Association Wednesday evening, preceding a Halloween party held by the group in Jacobs' Hall. The W. A. A. board met Tuesday evening at the home of Anne Raymond to make preparations for the initiation and party.

Charlotte Niven To Make Address On World Youth

Miss Charlotte T. Niven, who has just returned to the United States from Geneva, will address a student convocation Wednesday, November 6, at 10:00 o'clock in Jacobs' Hall. "Youth: The World's Future," is the topic of her address.

While at Geneva, Switzerland, Miss Niven was employed as General Secretary of the World's Young Women's Christian Association. She is now a member of the staff of the national board in New York City.

Miss Niven has traveled and worked with the youth in most of the countries of Europe; China, Japan, India and other countries of the Orient; and also in five countries of South America.

Frosh Gridsters Play Morningside

The freshman football team will journey to Sioux City next Wednesday for their second North Central Conference game. Although they were defeated by the South Dakota frosh, they are expecting to return with a victory over Morningside.

The probable starting lineup will have Slump and Reiman, ends; Zerschling and La Mantia, tackles; Threadgill and Lieber, guards; and Harper at center. In the backfield will be Kersenbrock and Middlekauff, halves; Jensen, quarter; and Kulper, at fullback.

TEACH BARBS DANCING!

The Barbs will sponsor a class in dance instruction for their group Monday, November 4, at noon in Jacobs' Hall, announced EdNell Benson, '39, at a meeting held last Monday, October 28.

"After observing the number of Barbs who sat out the Homecoming dance, we feel that something should be done," said EdNell.

Julian MacPherson, '37, will play the piano.
